AN EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS

Art of Kerensa

Kerensa D'Arcy Barr

Friday 24 and Saturday 25 July, 2026.

Friday 19:00 - 22:00. Saturday 11:00 - 17:00

Kerensa is a native of Wicklow and one of Wicklow's most famous female artists well known for her dance with nature which unfolds through out her unique style.

This exhibition is gathering a great deal of interest throughout Wicklow And especially Greystones where Kerensa is well known for her charitable work with the local community raising funds for numerous causes and charities so we are asking the communities on this occasion to come together and support this exhibition of her uniquely remarkable distinctive works.

On the days of the exhibition we will be joined by Kerensa's friends and fellow artists along with surprise guests adding to the spectacle.

In addition to:

- Drinks and nibbles reception on Friday evening.
- Raffle tickets for donated paintings by fellow artists.
- Strawberry's and ice-cream with elderflower cordial on Saturday.
- The exhibition will be curated by Brendan Murphy.

Contributor enquiries to: 087 910 5646

A once in a lifetime offer:

A range of limited edition prints will be available for €100 each, normal cost €250.
